

MONKEY FOR THANKSGIVING?! MONKEY!

This was our first Thanksgiving in the States since '09. We enjoyed all the classic highlights - parade, turkey, honey glazed ham, football, leftovers - no chance of monkey on the menu this year! We do have one waiting for us back in Ecuador though. Some Shuar friends brought us a real stuffed monkey for a parting gift as an expression of their thanks. It reminds me that no matter how much, or little we have, we can always give 'thanks'. And thanks to the contraband sniffing dogs at the Quito airport, you'll have to visit us in Sucua to see the monkey!

SHUAR PROCLAIMER

These solar powered audio new testaments are transforming the jungle - village by village! THANKS to all who are partnering with us to make them available to all 600 Shuar villages. More than 60 villages have already received one! Please stop by RichardsonMission.com for more information.

20,000 MILES DOWN

From Alabama to Seattle, Tucson to New York, the hospitality shown to us has been humbling and inspiring. THANKS to an army of churches, friends & family, we're about 60% to our goal of returning to Ecuador by May! We'll make sure your monthly sacrifice offers eternal hope for the Shuar.

NOVEMBER 2013

Here's what Karley, Sophia, & Zak were up to a year ago - hiking up to 'Trece Hijos' (13 Sons) one Sunday morning. The trio will be together again when Karley comes home from college in December. She's got her hands full, but enjoying her new home at Southeastern University in Lakeland, FL.
